Thro' P. N. Purnaiah Esq

Excise Commissioner in Mysore

Sir,

I respectfully beg permission to solicit your kind attention to the following, and to request that you will be pleased to accord my case your favorable consideration.

As will be apparent from a reference to the Civil List for the Government of Mysore, my appointment to the Graded Service is similar to that of Messrs Wedderburn, Venkata Rau Syed Ameer Hassan & Chengaiah Chetty,- dates from from the 1st November 1896.

The first two of these Officers, I would respectfully beg to bring to notice, have for some time been drawing Rs 600/- per mensem while the two latter Officers are already drawing Rs 550/- and will shortly draw Rs 600/-

I would further respectfully beg to submit, for your favorable consideration, that my Service under the Government of Mysore began on the 1st January 1873 — a date prior to that on which the service of any of the Officers above referred to commenced, — and that I have, several years ago passed all the prescribed Examinations, Criminal, Revenue & Civil high up in the 1st class

I would therefore in conclusion, respectfully beg that You will be pleased to consider my claims, and to grant me the
